

27th Annual Western Regional Conference on Behavior Analysis

California Association for Behavior Analysis
March 12 – 14, 2009

The Conference

The California Association for Behavior Analysis will host the 27th Annual Western Regional Conference on Behavior Analysis March 12-14, 2009. The conference offers information, resources, and professional development opportunities for Board Certified Behavior Analysts, Board Certified Assistant Behavior Analysts, psychologists, marriage and family therapists, social workers, speech-language pathologists, regular and special educators, students in those and related fields, and consumers of behavior analysis services. The conference general session will be March 12 and 13; workshops will be offered on March 14 only.

The Location

The conference hotel is the Hyatt Regency San Francisco Airport in Burlingame, California. In addition to its great location near San Francisco and other Bay Area attractions, the hotel offers beautiful rooms, gracious meeting areas, and many on-site amenities.

CalABA Julie Vargas Award

The Julie Vargas Award was created by Dr. Julie Vargas of the B.F. Skinner Foundation to promote research in behavior analysis by students. This competitive award of $250 is presented to a student who has conducted original research in behavior analysis. All current student members of CalABA are eligible. The award will be given at the annual conference, and an abstract of the research will be printed in the CalABA newsletter.

To apply, email the application (available at calaba.org) and a 100-word abstract with relevant figures and a vita by December 1, 2008 to:
